

“Because... I’m Worth it! Teen Outreach Events March 13 and March 14, 2018 For 8th grade and up! Theme: Chastity.

About the Speaker: Pam Stenzel

Pam Stenzel is an international communicator speaking to over 500,000 teens and parents each year. Pam Stenzel holds a degree in Psychology and is the former director of the Alpha Women’s Center. Pam combines her personal story and her extensive pregnancy counseling experience into a frank discussion about the consequences of sexual activity outside of God’s design for sex, which is marriage. Pam has also produced several award-winning videos, including, Sex has a Price Tag.

Who should attend?

The program is intended for mature 8th graders (subject matter is PG-13). Among the topics to be addressed:

- The physical and emotional risks of sex outside of marriage;
- Sexually transmitted diseases (STD’s);
- Teen pregnancy;
- Abortion;
- Rape;
- Media messages;
- Myths of contraception.

The students will:

- hear and reflect on their call to chastity and holiness;
- be challenged to make informed decisions;
- be encouraged to see themselves as gifts from God and value themselves enough to make right choices.

Teams of high school students will serve as peer mentors throughout the day. Skits, awesome music, prayer, questions and answers, and more!
